Evaluation

2002 Primary & General Elections – Circuit Court: Not Qualified

Peter A. Felice has been a solo general practitioner since being admitted to the bar in 1976. His practice has involved real estate matters, administrative law and municipal law matters. He has been general counsel to many municipalities. While the candidate was regarded as person of integrity and good character, he was deemed by number of contacts as having ordinary legal ability and experience. We find the candidate Not Qualified.
